1. Searching high and low for what, I don't know. But deep inside me was a hunger
2. Now I search no more. I know what's in store. For, up in heaven there's a mansion
3. So, you've searched here too. You found no-thing new. I'll tell you it's the same old story that the world could never fill and a thirst, for what? I could not tell. I found that the Lord's prepared for me. And one day I'll dwell there e-ter-nal-ly.

that will ne-ver sat-is- fy, well, I've been there and I'll tell you why.

G C

nothing in this world that could sat-is- fy my soul for there's not a single thing that could make my being whole till by grace thru' faith I re- ceived God's righteous- ness.

Now he's made my being whole and my soul is glo-ry bound, yes, my heart is set above where my treasures can be found I shall be sa-tis-fied when I a- wake----- in his likeness.
