

Come Unto Me

Matthew 11:28

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

1 G C D G

A - no - ther day, a - no - ther dol - lar. Loo - kin' for the week - end to come. Tho' it seems full
 You live as if there's no to - mor - row. Get - ting all that you can get. Yet, in your heart
 You ate your fill but still you're hun - gry for no - thing seems to sa - tis - fy. Your thir - sty still

3 C D Am C D

it's real - ly hol - low, no mat - ter how much you bring home. So, when you're sick and tired of be - ing there's pain and sor - row. for in the end there's emp - ti - ness. If you could gain the world you'd lose your though nea - rly drow - ning. It's e - nough to make you cry. If you could eat it all and drink the sick and ti - red all the time just go to Je - sus Christ who of - fers you his rest sub - lime. He soul in spite of all you own. But, give your - self - to Je - sus, He'll give you hea - ven for a home last drop you'd still want some more. But eat and drink of Je - sus and he'll fill you e - ver - more.

5 Am C D

8 G Am D G

says, come un - to me, lay down your hea - vy bur - den, come un - to me, and

12 Am D G Am D G Am D

I will give you rest. come un - to me, lay down your hea - vy bur - den, come un - to me, and I will give you rest.