

You've Got A Friend

John 15:13

Words & music by:

G D

You've walked alone thru' your life tho' there are people all a-round. You know lon-li-ness so well you
There may be many you love & trust who stand the test of time. Whether times are good or bad you Now you've found Jesus a friend in deed. He's with you ev' ry day. Whether you have made him glad or might count it a close friend. You've bo't so many things to fill the void but emp-ti-ness is all you've found will always find them true. But when your time on earth is at an end and you prepare to leave you'll find if you have made him sad. When you compare him to the best of friends in his light they all fade a-way

C G Am

D G Chorus: C

Like those, who in fair weather, seem to love but just pretend. You've got a friend in Je- sus that none can walk that valley with you nor can see you thru'. for Je- sus is the best friend that a sin- ner ever had.
