

But For the Grace of God

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

1 D A G D

1 2 3 4

5 A D A

5 6 7 8

As I go a - bout my bus' - ness, see - ing those a - long the
And I look out on the peo - ple, in a world of sin and Then, I see my friends and neigh - bors as they live their lives each

9 Em A G

9 10 11 12

way, who have lost there home and fam' - ly, and now waste their lives a - shame, who have ne - ver heard of Cal - v'ry, nor of Je - sus pre - cious day. They don't see their need for Je - sus and they ne - ver stop to

13 D G D

13 14 15 16

way, I con - si - der all the bles - sings that the Lord has poured on name. I re - mem - ber when he found me, though a sin - ner lost in pray. I don't en - vy them their plea - sure. As they live their lives in

17 G A D G A

To Coda 3rd Time

17 18 19 20

me. And I know I don't de - serve it, which is plain for all to sin, yet his grace was all suf - fi - cient and he cleansed me from with - vain. I've been set a - part for

But For the Grace of God

21 D  $\text{\textcircled{S}}$  G

see. in. But for the grace of God I might have been a lived shunned in his

25 D A

beg - gar, dark - ness, woo - ing. with - out home or cloth - ing ne - ver know - ing Je - sus, ne - ver trust - ing Je - sus hun - gry and a - God's own pre - cious has and what he has

29 D G

lone. son. done. But grea - ter than these bles - sings is the gift of of And there's no grea - ter bles - sing than the gift of of And there's no grea - ter bles - sing than the gift of of

33 D A

God, of - fered free to all, his great sal -

37 G D Fine  $\text{\textcircled{D}}$  G A D D.S. al Fine

va - tion. Glo - ry for now I am born a - gain.