

No Where Else To Hide

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

1

D G D G

This old wick - ed sin - ful world is more than I can take some - times. Ev' - ry
This old fle - shy heart of mine has lead me ev - er far as - tray. I can't
That old wick - ed Lu - ci - fer, he's like a li - on stalk - ing me. Ev' - ry day it's the same old thing; bur - dens pain and fear. Then I re - ceive trust my - self for I may err and fall on my face. So, I must trust move that I make he tries to make sure I fall. But there is one

5

D A Bm G

10

A D B7 Em A

com - fort and strength sub - lime, for I know Je - sus is near.
in his word ev' - ry day, and his all suf - fi - cient grace.
liv - ing in - side of me. He'll res - cue me when I call.

17

G D A D G

Wand - rin' in this wild - er - ness with - out an - y help or hope. Sur - round - ed with un -

22

D A D G D

right - eous - ness, with - out an - y strength to cope. Troub - les on ev' - ry side through - out this bar - ren land. No where else to hide but in the hol - low of his hand.

27

Em D G D A D