The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of seven systems of music, each with a vocal line and a bass line. Chord symbols are placed above the vocal line. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Well, A - me - ri - ca was born and raised on a bat - tle field she was birthed in blood and sweat Is life so dear or peace so sweet to be bought with slavery? I don't know what you and tears and weaned on ad - ver - si - ty And we cut our teath one car - in' of a might do, but give me death or li - ber - ty I on - ly have one life to give but I wil - der - ness a place where each can rise a - bove if they want it bad e - nough give it willingly so that free - dom can be had by all, though to them it may seem free

But free - dom's not for the faint of heart or the ir - re - spon - si - ble but for but to those who serve to make us free it is sweet - er ev' - ry day and though those with strength of cha - rac - ter and an un - re - len - ting will no one may ap - pre - ci - ate it, we do it an - y - way

Don't for get the price of free - dom al ways has been high Don't for get that truth and free - dom come from up on high

Don't for get that some things you can't sell or give a - way Don't for get, 'cause if you do you'll miss it some sad day
