God has giv-en to his children food, to grow thereby. Milk for babes and God has giv-en rest from ev'-ry burden, when we pray, at the bles-sed God gives pow-er to walk worthy, we must do what's right. Fellow-ship with God poured out his Ho-ly Spirit's pow'r from up a-bove. By his word to meat for grown-ups, comes from up on high. Like the man-na in the desert, throne of grace, re-freshed though out the day. Leaning on his mighty arms, he those of like faith, walk-ing in the light. Live life sober, watching always, tell the lost world of his gracious love. We must run the course be-fore us falling from the sky. Feasting on the bread of heaven, we shall never die. takes our cares a-way. Trusting in his love and mercy come what-ever may.

never in the night. Bringing glo-ry to the saviour, walking in his sight.
with the strength he's giv'n. We must fight the good fight so that more may go to heav'n.
