

I've Got a Glimpse of Glory

1 Corinthians 2:7-10

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

I've read in the Bible, not an eye hath seen, nor an ear hath heard what's waitin' where we've People think I'm crazy for I'm not afraid to be absent from my body when it's One day soon I'm leavin', heaven for to gain, where the saviour wipes a-way all tears and never been. Neither entered in the heart of man what we've in store, but I kept on readin' and gone and dead. I've an eye-ful and a mind to shout for-ev-er-more, I can't help re-mem-ber-in' there's no pain. There I'll sing a new song on that hap-py golden shore, then I'll live for-ev-er in

Chorus:

I'll tell you what I saw the vision that I saw the glory that I saw I've got a glimpse of glory, far beyond the blue. God revealed it to me

He could show you too. I'm gonna tell the story for I know it's true. I've got a glimpse of glo-ry far beyond the blue. I've got a glimpse of glo-ry far be-yond the blue.

far beyond the blue