Count It All Joy

James 1:2

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

1. Have you been sifted by the devil tried in the fire like silver and gold and you think Job
2. Have you had trials and tribulations tho' you walk in the narrow way and you feel life
3. If you've been sanctified for glory, washed in the blood of calvary's lamb, you can be sure couldn't have carried this burden you bear. Well, you can cry yourself a river. Pity your poor living for Jesus has cost you to dear. Well, you can stop your walking worthy, live in the world Satan is trying to ruin your day. Well, you can quit before you've started, throw in the towel and worn out soul, or you can rise up like an eagle if you dare. Count it all joy when you fall like it's your home, or you can let his perfect love cast out all fear. and stay in bed, or you can stand fast till the bride is caught a-way.

in- to temptation knowing that patience comes from trials of our faith. Letting her perfect work be done, making us more like God's own son, count it all joy when temptation comes your way.
