Brethren you need never sor- row, when a loved one passes on. For as Christ was Brethren, do not walk in dark- ness, neither sleep as in the night. but be sober, Brethren, there are some in dark- ness, who have ne- ver seen the light They have never raised to glo- ry, so shall those already gone. When the trump of God shall sound watching al- ways, each day walking in the light. With the breastplate made of faith called on Je- sus. They're still walking in the night. So with God's al-migh-ty Spir-
