Up Hill All the Way

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

Well, this world has nev-er cared to much a- bout the things of God. It lays so many Well, the flesh it profits nothing and with-in there's nothing good. It wants to do what Well, the Devil's out to make us fall if he can get us to. He fights us tooth and ob- sti- cles up- on the path we plod. Like fish that swim against the flow, our days have little we ought not and not the things we should. If we attempt to do what's right it's certain to op-nail each day with wiles and strength anew. And if perchance you'd like to do some work for Christ our ease. When the burdens grow to great sometimes they bring us to our knees. 'cause it's up-hill pose. If you try to live for Jesus then that's just the way it goes.

Lord. Well, you'd better arm yourself each day with God's most holy word.

all the way! Yes, it's up-hill all the way! Well, the way is rough and stoney and sometimes it's seems so lonely. If you're on the road to glory then it's up-hill all the way!
