Our Light Affliction

2 Corinthians 4:8-18

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

On ev' ry side troubles try our souls. Perplexed are we, but not in despair.
We bear his dying in our bodies here, that his life al- so might be mani- fest.
Through our thanksgiving God is glo- ri- fied. and so we faint not living day by day

We're not for- sa- ken in our per- se- cution. We've been cast down, but we're not destroyed.
for we be- lieve therefore we have spoken Je- sus was raised up one day we shall be.
our bodies perish but our souls re- newed. We see e- ter- ni- ty not just here and now.

Chorus:

For, our light a- ffliction, which is for a mo- ment, works e- ter- nal glo- ry for us on high. If we suffer with him, with him we'll be for us on high

glo- ri- fied, when we stand be- fore him, be- yond the sky.
