I Yield To You

Isaiah 6:8

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

♩ = 84

1 E A

As I look up and see you as you are
You come to me and show me my new life.
As I look out and see the fields so ripe

5 B E A

I see my - self and woe is me I cry.
The way seems dark but then you shine your light.
and hear You, Lord, pray for more la - bo - rers;

9 B F♯m B F♯m

But then you send a fire from a - bove, to cleanse my lips with your mer - cy and love;
You draw my heart to path - ways un - seen You send me now where I've ne - ver been.
then I say, Lord, I'll go to your field, to give the gos - pel lost souls to heal.

13 B F♯m B F♯m B

and then you ask whom shall I send, the bro - ken hearts to mend.
There's no oth - er place that I'd rath - er be than in the place You lead.
and do what it takes, no mat - ter the cost to bring them to the cross

18 A B E C♯m A B E

I yield to you, I give you my all, I give up all that I have to ans-wer your call.

26 A B E C♯m A B E

I yield to you, my Lord and my King, My will I re - sign, for I owe you ev' - ry - thing.

© Copyright 1999 Dennis P. German